SHORT CUTS IN STATE NEWS

The Latest News From All Over the State

HAPPENINGS OF THE WEEK

Richmond.—Ernest G. Upchurch, who escaped from a road camp in Loudoun county, was serving one year for forgery committed here. A charge of bigamy is standing against him here and he was scheduled to be tried on this charge when he completed his road term. His time was nearly up when he decamped.

* * *

Pulaski.—The school board of Scott county has sold an authorized issue of school bonds amounting to $18,000 to Wells, Roth & Irving, of Cincinnati, at $18,365. The bonds are to bear 5½ per cent interest. The proceeds are to be used for increased school facilities in the Eastlilville district of said county.

* * *

Petersburg.—Word was received here of the death of George Beadle, aged 85, for many years a resident of Petersburg, which occurred at his home in Syracuse, N. Y. Mr. Beadle established the first horse-car line in this city, which was operated for many years. He is survived by one daughter, Miss Lou Beadle, who has made her home in Petersburg for several years.

* * *

Orange.—Winfrey Jacobs, 23-year-old farmer, who lives three miles from Orange, was knocked unconscious when his car turned over three times when he passed another car on the road to Fredericksburg, near Minerun. Jacobs was badly bruised and an artery in his right arm was practically severed. He was rushed to his home, where medical aid was rendered and he recovered consciousness.

* * *

Lynchburg.—Harry L. Quarles, of Roanoke, a magazine solicitor, was fined $25 in the municipal court here under charge of obtaining money under false pretenses from Brack Mason, a negro. The negro's story was that he gave Quarles a subscription to a magazine under belief that the money was to be used at Washington to get him (Mason) an increase in pay at a meat foundry, where he is employed.

* * *

Richmond.—The Rev. John B. Gordon, of the "Old Stone Church" at Fort Defiance, Augusta county, for the past eight years, has accepted a call to Third Presbyterian Church, this city, and will enter upon his new duties here at an early date, it was announced. Mr. Gordon will succeed the Rev. H. G. Williams, who dropped dead several months ago while at work in his garden.

* * *

Charlottesville.—Thomas J. Wood, aged 50, wealthy farmer and merchant, was found dead in his store at Wildwood, Fluvanna county, with a load of buckshot through his abdomen. According to the verdict returned following the coroner's inquest, death was accidental, being caused by the premature discharge of a shotgun which had been left loaded just inside the store door. Wood was a native of Albemarle county.

* * *

Winchester.—Mrs. Mary Copley Thaw, of Pittsburgh, arrived here to spend some time with her son, Harry K. Thaw, who has recently purchased "Kenilworth," the old mansion home place, near here. It was understood Mrs. Thaw expects to spend a considerable portion of her time at "Kenilworth" after her son takes possession of the property the latter part of the month. She visited the historic old mansion and the grounds, including a large spring of limestone water, and expressed herself as much pleased with her son's new Virginia home.

* * *

Charlottesville.—Winners of the three medals offered each year by the University of Virginia Magazine for the best poem, short story and essay published during the session have been announced by the committee which made the awards. James Reese McKeldon, of Atlanta, was awarded the medal for the short story, "Peasants," which appeared in the April issue of the magazine. McKeldon was one of the associate editors of the magazine during the session just passed. Miss Amey A. Smyth, of Blacksburg, Va., was named as winner of the medal for the poem, "Water Songs," which was printed in the November (1923) issue. Charles Lee Reese, Jr., of Wilmington, Del., won the essay prize with "Dangerous Books," published in December, 1923.

* * *

Covington.—Sam Thacker, notorious mountain moonshiner, charged with shooting four officers at Flinn last October, was given 10 years in the penitentiary by a jury in the Alleghany County Circuit Court, after a trial lasting three days. He was tried on an indictment for shooting and wounding Sheriff Robert E. Dyche. Three other indictments charge shooting and wounding prohibition officer I. S. McManaway, United States Deputy Marshal Beasley and Prohibition Officer G. E. Sprague.

* * *

Pulaski.—The Peoples National Bank of Abingdon is occupying its new building. The building is five stories. The first floor is set apart entirely for the banking business. The second, third and fourth floors provide offices, while the fifth floor provides a hall for general meetings.

* * *

Lynchburg.—Roy Robertson, 24, of Amherst, was killed by the Seaboard Southern train, No. 75, Sunday a mile south of Whitties, while standing on the south bound track watching a north bound train pass him.

* * *

Harrisonburg.—Harrisonburg's next convention—that of the Virginia State Firemen's Association, August 20, 21 and 22—gives promise of being the largest gathering of the year here, as well as one of the best-attended, in the thirty-eight years of the organization. Captain Ed. Lamp, at a recent meeting of the convention committees of Hose Company No. 4, reported that already twenty-five companies and ten bands have made reservations. Because of the hearty welcome always given the visitors here and Hose Company No. 4's reputation as genial hosts, practically every volunteer fire fighting organization in the State will be represented here. A number of out-of-the-State companies, as far north as Pennsylvania, have indicated their intention of attending.

* * *

Richmond.—Wilmer O. Jones, aged 27, ex-policeman of Norfolk, serving a 20-year term in the Virginia Penitentiary for participation in a fight on the Japanese vessel in Norfolk harbor several years ago that resulted in the killing of three members of the crew, died at Memorial Hospital as a result of a Bunger strike which he had been on for many months. He was removed to the hospital a day or two ago in a greatly weakened condition, death coming. As soon as the revolver shots crumpled up on the ground, exclaiming, "I am gone." He was dead in less than a minute, the ball penetrating his heart. Before leaving Lucy Bolen was a great devotee of moving pictures, and one of the time went clad in all of the habiliments of the frontiersman.

* * *

Luray.—Philip Cabbage, of Cubbage Hollow, this county, was arrested in Luray, is in the Harrisonburg Hospital suffering from a fractured skull as the result of a long and fierce fight that raged between him and his uncle, Lewis Cubbage, at their home in the foothills of the Blue Ridge, a few days ago. The full extent of Cubbage's injuries is not known, though he is said to have remained unconscious for a long time after the battle. Trouble between the man arose over a cow. The other man also is injured.

* * *

Objected to His "Pants"

An Oregon man was trying to sell a horse. The animal was broken-winded, but sleek. The prospective buyer came around for inspection and bringing him back to the prospect stroked the horse's back and remarked, "Hasn't he a lovely coat?" The prospect then moved his pipe and said, as he looked at the heaving flanks of the animal: "Yeah, his coat's all right; but I don't like his pants."

* * *

His Motive

Wife—"I cannot understand, John, why you always sit on the piano stool when you have company. Everyone knows you cannot play a note." Husband—"I'm well aware of it, dear. Neither can anybody else when I am sitting here."

Sunday School Lesson

(By REV P. B. FITZWATER, D.D., Dean of the Bible Teacher Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.)
(©, 1924, Western Newspaper Union.)

Lesson for July 27

THE TEMPTATION OF JESUS

LESSON TEXT—Matt. 4:1-11.
GOLDEN TEXT—For in that He Himself hath suffered being tempted, He is able to succor them that are tempted.—Heb. 2:18.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus Refuses to Do Wrong.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus Conquers the Tempter.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Jesus Showing Us How to Overcome Temptation.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Victory Over the Devil.

I. Its Purpose (v. 1). The Holy Spirit led Him into the wilderness with specific purpose that He there might overcome the one whose work was to destroy (Heb. 2:14). Temptation is not a presumption of sin, but is rather the opening of the dreadful conflict between Christ and Satan. Satan delights to test Jesus to find out if He would fall—to find out if the love of God as to redemption would fail. Satan tempts us in order that we might test, to whom we will cleave, whether Christ and God or Satan and sin. Temptation is to us a real person, which we must meet and overcome by the which would destroy us.

II. The Tempter (vv. 1-11).

1. The Devil (v. 1). (1) Satan vanquished. The enemy was completely routed. The strong man was so bound that the spoiling of his house was possible.

(2) Angels came and ministered unto Him. This event was no notable that these glorious beings were sent from heaven to give it recognition and to minister unto the triumphant King.

Man's Sorrows

Man's sorrows are a mystery, but that sinners should not have sorrows were a sadder mystery still. And God pleads with us all not to lose the good of our experiences of the bitterness of sin by our levity or our blindness to their meanings.—Alexander Maclaren.

A Prayer

We pray Thee, O God, that Thou wilt help us to be faithful, earnest and true in all of our work, whatever it may be.

Clear Conscience

Lots of people regard a clear conscience as more of a luxury than a necessity.

Considering Others

It is always easier to discuss the faults of others, than to do our own.
